Cava Avinyó Selecció La Ticota Gran Reserva

On the front of every bottle of Cava Avinyó Selecció La Ticota Gran Reserva is a Catalan inscription that translates: “from the must of the flower and with the rigor of a work well crafted.” This phrase sums up the Nadal family’s winemaking philosophy with their focus on producing the highest quality of wine through adherence to the natural fruit and through hard work and great delicacy in the winemaking process. After all, if you’re making wine for your family, you want to make sure it’s as good as it can be. Although the estate dates back to the sixteenth century, the winery was founded over 50 years ago when Joan Esteve Nadal planted Xarel-lo and Macabeo to make sparkling wine for his family. Joan’s children now run the winery but they stick to their father’s notion of using pure free-run juice and delicate care in crafting this family wine. Cava Avinyó Selecció La Ticota Gran Reserva is sourced from 2 hectares of the original vineyards planted in 1943. The wine is 100% free-run juice aged for over 4 years and with no dosage.
